

"Stay and Play"

Play Date Ideas

The goal of playdates is to allow children to have social and fun interactions with each other and with the others families. Play dates can be as much or as little work as you choose. Here are some ideas that may spark other playful ideas for you. The most important thing: HAVE FUN!!!!!!

LIMIT USE OF TECHNOLOGICAL DEVICES

Play TOGETHER!

Basketball Court

Roller Skating

Bike Riding

Go to the Park/Playground

Play in your backyard

Talking Games (Get to know each other)

Talk about Most Embarrassing Moments

Complete or start a 50, 75, 100, 200, 500 or 1000 Piece Puzzles

Go out for Ice Cream

Make a Sundae Bar at Home

Caramel Some PopCorn

Share a Meal

Make your Own Pizza

Make Smoothies

Watch a "wholesome" G-Rated Television Show or Movie

Read/Share your favorite Books

Play hand games

Play Boardgames

Build an indoor fort

Make Art of your recyclables

Play Jacks

Craft Projects